Constipation and Catarrh

been the remedy that I have devised, and it has certainly relieved many thousand prople, yes hundreds of thousands of people, of chronic catarria.

Constipation was my chief difficulty in treating these cases. I often felt that it would be better if a laxative element were added to Peruna. I feared to do so, however, first because of the number of catarrial ratients who weeked to be compared to be compared to the solemn assembly of catarrial ratients who weeked to be compared to the compar
